Channels

---

The Channels Building Block describes how a company communicates with and reaches its Customer Segments to deliver a Value Proposition

Channels serve several functions, including:

Raising awareness among customers about a company's products and services

Helping customers evaluate a company's Value Proposition

Allowing customers to purchase specific products and services

Delivering a Value Proposition to customers

Providing post-purchase customer support

Key questions

- Through which Channels do our Customer Segments want to be reached? (heard/see/do)
- How are we reaching them now?
- How are our Channels integrated?
- Which ones work best? (efficiency/cost )

Between direct Channels and indirect ones, as well as between owned Channels and partner Channels.

Right mix of Channels

Finding the right mix of Channels to satisfy how customers want to be reached is crucial in bringing a Value Proposition to market.
